Description

- All regular classes follow the KIST Academic Calendar.
- Classes consist of periods. The duration of each period is 60 minutes (= 1 hour).
- Extra Classes are arranged according to situational needs.
- Breaks between periods are mentioned in the given timetables.

Academic Calendar

The KIST Academic Calendar relates to each academic session based upon the curricula, general guidelines, and College activities. It incorporates academic, examination, and extracurricular activities over the academic year and also mentions weekly offs, holidays, vacations, and collegiate functions or events. It is the duty of each student to follow it strictly in order to derive full benefit.

Practicals

Practicals are mandatory in some subjects which are an integral part of the curriculum. Periods for subject practicals are allocated as per guidelines of the University. The overall marking of these subjects is based on a combination of both written and practical papers. Our Teachers and technical staff provide close support to students to transform their learning into useful practical knowledge.

Guidelines

Practicals improve progress across the curriculum by helping students to learn and reinforce theoretical concepts in an interesting way. However, each student must take full precautions about health and safety apart from the accuracy and completion of practical work.

Safety Precautions

Safe working is the most important guideline. Risk assessment by students is most advisable before doing practicals and routine health and safety precautions MUST be observed while doing practicals.

Accuracy and Completion

- All students must obey lab rules and not damage anything.
- They must record their work neatly on their worksheets using their own stationery.
- They must follow practical lesson plans & instructions to complete their tasks.
- Students ought to have a clear practical focus while doing their work.

Examinations

Examinations at KIST are the most important part of our assessment process which evaluates the academic achievement of each student. Educational assessment and academic performance are interrelated and best proven through examination results.

KIST holds different examinations where students learn and progress by their overall academic performance in their educational career. These exams are used for assessing the students in an internationally competitive arena whereby a full insight into each student's attained knowledge and capabilities is gained.

Aims

- To determine the level of achievement of a student generally at the end of a Course of study
- To identify the learning needs of students
- To form an essential part of the learning process itself

All examinations in the College relate directly to the Course of study and its curriculum. All Courses have separate evaluation components which are internal (College-based) and external assessment (University-based). KIST examination papers provide for valid and reliable evaluation. Our assessment and grading/ marking procedures ensure parity of treatment for all students irrespective of subject or examination session. The marking of teachers and examiners follows, as far as possible, identical assessment criteria and appropriate moderation.

The College conducts various other tests apart from Semester examinations. These other tests include Special Tests (such as Practice, Sample, Model, Snap and Corrective Tests). All tests and exams are mandatory. While the schedule of Semester Examinations and Class Tests is given in the Academic Calendar, all the other tests (except for snap tests) are held only after notifying students.

Class Tests

These Tests prepare students for the coming Internal, and Semester or final examinations. The Tests examine student learning of the course subjects taught during the period.

Special Tests

There are a number of Special Tests according to individual or institutional requirements. They include Practice, Sample, Snap, and Corrective Tests and are meant to instill actual learning and encourage academic achievement as well as to check student assimilation and assess student progress over set periods.

Feedback and Counseling

We also provide regular feedback and counseling during each semester/year. The College can call guardians/ parents and/or students at any time during the semesters about any pressing academic or disciplinary matter. Advice and suggestions following such feedback and counseling are meant to improvement of students and should be followed.

Important Note

- Students must maintain satisfactory academic progress in Internal Examinations.
- The results distribution session is according to the College Academic Calendar.

Academic Assistance

Over and apart from regular classes, the College provides adequate academic assistance to students who need help in certain areas of academic difficulty. Primarily, this need is catered through tutorials. Special classes are also held for those students who need further help.

Tutorials

Tutorials are conducted in subject areas of importance or difficulty before, during, or after regular classes. Schedules of these compulsory tutorials are published for each semester/year.

Awards

KIST encourages all its students to do their best throughout the academic session by various awards – meant both for outstanding individual and team achievements – to recognize excellence in academic or co-curricular or extracurricular activities. These awards are in the form of certificates of excellence for fine performance or commendation certificates for active participation.

Assignments

Assignment, or out-of-class tasks, is assigned to students as an elaboration of classroom work for practice, preparation, and extension.

Assigning homework serves various educational needs. It serves as an intellectual discipline, establishes study habits, eases time constraints on the amount of curricular material that can be covered in class, and supplements and reinforces work done in the College. In addition, it fosters student initiative, independence, self-discipline and responsibility, stimulates interest, and brings home and college closer together. Additionally, every encouragement should be given to extensive personal reading for the acquisition of depth and breadth in interdisciplinary knowledge.

Co-Curriculum

Co-curricular activities (CCAs) are a means to enhance social interaction, leadership, healthy recreation, self-discipline, and self-confidence with a view to reinforce academic assimilation and outcome.

CCAs are held inside standard curriculum hours and the activities partaken depend on the nature of the CCA. The CCA groups mostly cater to specific interests. Competitions are organized at times to create a competitive environment and provide such CCA groups with an objective to work towards.

Monitoring & Reporting

Academic Monitoring

The College closely monitors the academic activities of each student throughout the academic session. To make our academic monitoring fully effective, we encourage the active involvement of parents or guardians.

Academic Non-Performance & Corrective Action

Academic Non-Performance includes non-completion of assignments, academic apathy, lack of progress, or failure in tests or examinations. The students whose academic performance is not found satisfactory and whose disciplinary record is found to be unsatisfactory will be subjected to corrective action so as to get them back on track for success in the final exams.

Reporting

Reporting assists students, parents or guardians, and teachers in making decisions by providing information about what students know and can do, along with recommendations for their future learning. It enables regular monitoring of student learning and provides ongoing, constructive feedback to students that focuses on ways their learning can be further developed.

Clubs & Activities

The Clubs at KIST are varied in their aims or functions. These collegiate Clubs help to foster student talent immensely and to involve KIST students actively in numerous non-academic activities. We believe that the activities of our Clubs enhance the overall development of our students.
